

IOC/IAKS Award
for Exemplary Sports and Leisure Facilities 2015

IPC/IAKS Distinction
for Accessibility 2015

"EXEMPLARY"

MISSION

The IOC/IAKS Award brings to public attention exemplary buildings and complexes that integrate sensible sustainability and legacy considerations, strong functional planning and exceptional architectural design.

The goal of enhancing the human experience and appreciation of sport and leisure while protecting the environment through design, the use of materials, and creativity is fundamental to the awards programme.

The IPC/IAKS Distinction is aimed at increasing the accessibility of all sports and leisure facilities and architectural structures in order to offer all people, regardless of their physical abilities, opportunities to practise and view sport freely and without barriers.
