

Military plan

1876
Military Museum

This military plan from 1876 is one of the earliest examples of the functional planning of Ile-Ste-Helene. The paths that have been laid seem to respond to the natural topography of the site, which has several small hills - or mountains - as labelled in this map.